

Report of the Nominations Committee to the Friends of the South Coastal Library Board
August 27, 2024
By Rachel Maleh, Chair

The FOSCL Nominations Committee is excited to welcome the following new board members to the FOSCL board:

Returning:

Connie Dierman (second term September 2024)

Steve Embry (second term September 2024)

Lisa Saxton (second term September 2024)

And:

Susan Kendrat (first term September 2024)

Susan brings terrific energy and a love of reading and libraries. Her background is in marketing, brand management and communications. She has taught business and marketing and feels equally comfortable with finance, marketing and communications.

Jackie Lessing (first term September 2024)

Jackie has participated in BBCT and loves libraries and reading. She has an MBA from Wharton, coupled with a strong background in finance and nonprofit governance.

Lacey Weller (first term September 2024)

Lacey and her daughter participate in the school partnership program at Lord Baltimore as well as many of the library programs available to them. She has taught in higher education and works in HR at DelTech.

Eric Van Winkle (first term September 2024)

Eric loves reading and libraries. He recently retired from Lockheed Martin and brings skills in policies, procedures, standards, developing and maintaining internal IT systems as well as governance.

Several new board members volunteered for BBCT and the upcoming event on the boardwalk.

Please feel free to join us for a new board orientation on Thursday, September 19th starting at 5pm.
