

Friends of South Coastal Library
School Partnership Committee Report
September 24, 2025

Our School Partnership Committee did not meet during the month. We have little to report. Recently an email was sent to the principal and reading specialist at Lord Baltimore and Sue and Megan at our library to coordinate all our responsibilities for our project which begins in February. All systems are go!